ANNOUNCEMENT

It is observed by the Immovable Property Commission that there have been inconveniences with mails/cargo due to Covid-19 and future applicants living abroad have been experiencing difficulties in sending original copies of documents to their advocates and/or representatives. This being the case, Applicants residing abroad, other than South Cyprus, who want to file an application and to appoint an Advocate and/or representative will be able to scan duly certified copies of all documents (which is in accordance with the procedures applied by the Commission as of today) that should be added to the application and send them to their advocates and/or representatives who will later lodge applications with the Commission.

- The Commission's operating conditions will remain in concordance with the announcements dated May 20th 2020 and June 22nd 2020 until further notice.

Respectfully accounced to the public.

Ayfer Said Erkmen

President
